Love God. Love Neighbor. Make Disciples. Change the World

HE LIVES!

(from FaceBook) After the President's news conference was over, one of the reporters made the observation that for the first time in our nation's history we won't be celebrating Easter. Well let me tell you one thing, he's dead wrong. We might not celebrate what Easter has become in that there may be no new clothes bought for that Sunday. We might not hide and hunt eggs in mass quantities. We may not travel home to attend church with our family. We might not see some folks at our worship services that we haven't seen since Christmas, but we're going to Celebrate Easter. As a matter of fact, every Sunday is Easter Sunday. Every time we assemble for worship we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Pilate couldn't kill Him and the grave couldn't hold Him. You think the Corona virus is going to stop Easter. More people this year will hear the gospel than any other Easter before.

Easter is not just about special programs, although we will still have them at our church. It's not about the trumpet call or the mass crowds. It's the fact that we serve a living today. Easter is not only about His resurrection, but our ability to rise with Him. Easter is about the hope of tomorrow and the gift of everlasting life. Yes indeed, we will celebrate. We'll celebrate what God did for all of us at Calvary. How? By remembering Him. By loving Him. By worshiping Him. By praising Him. Easter for us is everyday. Let the celebration begin. Sing with me:

I serve a risen Savior, He's in the world today

I know that He is living, whatever men may say

I see His hand of mercy, I hear His voice of cheer

And just the time I need Him He's always near

He lives (He lives), He lives (He lives),
Christ Jesus lives today

He walks with me and talks with me

Along life's narrow way

He lives (He lives), He lives (He lives),
Salvation to impart

You ask me how I know He lives?

He lives within my heart

FROM THE PASTOR

“He isn’t here..” Luke 22:6

The empty tomb is something to be celebrated! More than a basket full of candy or a tree full of presents, the emptiness of the tomb reminds us of the fullness and hope that comes through the glorious resurrection.

Easter is not a one day celebration but a continual one. There is actually 40 days in the Easter season. Maybe you have an excuse to keep your decorations up.

Remember, we are already an Easter people and we live in the glory of the resurrection. There is power in that.

I hope and pray you are well and keep the faith bigger than your fears.

Thank you for continuing to support the ministry with the National Guard. We continue to support our community by setting up medical testing facilities and support food distribution sites. We will soon be doing missions in our area and you may see your citizen soldiers hard at work. Continue to pray for them as they face many hurdles to serve their country. They leave their homes and jobs in order to serve and support their neighbors.
